Come to the Waiatarua Autumn Festival

When? This Sunday, the 26th of March!

Are you entering a competition? If so, remember to bring your entry to the Hall (911 West Coast Rd), between 8.00am and 10.00am on Sunday morning. The Festival opens at 10.00am and the Hall will close for judging at 10.30am. Fill out the entry form on the back page or make your own. There is a gold coin (adults) or silver coin (children 12yrs and under) fee for each entry, and the money will go towards new tables for the Hall.

Competitions:

GARDENING:

3 varieties home-grown fruit and/or veg (Adult or family; child)
3 home-grown flowers all the same variety (Adult or family; child)
Largest Pumpkin by weight (Adult or family; child)
Tallest sunflower (under 5yrs; 5 - 12yrs)
Largest diameter sunflower (under 5yrs; 5 - 12yrs)

BAKING:

3 scones (open individual)
Sponge cake (open individual)
Bloke's chocolate cake (no age limit)
Kid's plate of biscuits (under 5yrs; 5 - 8yrs; 9 - 12yrs)
Home brew ginger beer (open individual or family)

CRAFTS:

Homemade card and envelope (under 5yrs; 5 - 8yrs; 8 - 12yrs; adult)
Needlework (hand or machine, up to 500mm X 500mm) (child; adult)
Decorated egg (under 9 yrs; 9 - 12yrs)

Competition rules

- 'Adult or family' means that adult and family entries will be judged together as one category.
- 'Child' is 12years and under
- Garden produce must be grown in Waiatarua (we're lenient with boundaries but no tomatoes from Nana's in Henderson or pumpkins from Uncle Joe's in Kumeu etc.)
- Baking categories may be taste-tested by judges and afterwards will be auctioned off by silent auction (all proceeds to Hall Tables).

Local Female Firefighter Brings Home Two Gold

Waiatarua's deputy chief fire officer, Helen Longley, returned home from last month's World Firefighters Games in Hong Kong with two of New Zealand's twelve gold medals, one for indoor rowing and the other for squash (masters). This is the second time Helen has taken part in these international competitions, and she plans to attend the 2008 games in Liverpool. It was 2004 at Sheffield where she picked up 'a silver' for squash.

Helen says she has only visited Hong Kong on one other occasion for a very short period, in transit. This time around she "met lots of people, had fun and enjoyed sightseeing".

Helen has been a member of the Waiatarua Fire Brigade for 10½ years, initially joining when the brigade was short of volunteers. She says her thoughts then were... 'This could be interesting'.

Helen's full-time employment at Longley Printing keeps her busy, but she still manages to dedicate four or five hours a week to the fire brigade and spends extra time keeping fit on the squash court.

Since its conception in 1990, with New Zealand hosting the first, World Firefighters Games take place bi-annually. They are designed to provide firefighters from all around the world with an opportunity to share experiences and fortify comradeship. The games are widely regarded in the firefighting community as mini Olympics, where like-minded people are able to meet and compete. At least fifty sports/games are available ranging from a variety of track & field and ball game competitions, to specialist activities.

Helen Longley is quick to shed the limelight and mention that Angela Munroe from Otahuhu also brought home gold, in 'Toughest Firefighter Alive' (women's division).

And let's not forget Kerry Chislett was the second Kiwi home in Seattle's Tower Stair Climb challenge in the USA. His time for the trot up to the 69th floor was 16 minutes and 38 seconds - in full firefighting kit with breathing apparatus.

- Thanks guys and gals, for an amazing effort; and for putting us on the map! Ed.

From the Editor

Robin Essex

Following the recent WRRR elections, I find myself sitting in the editor's chair once again – a good time to review what this publication is all about. The answer would surely have to be “community”.

The night Mayor Bob Harvey presented to Waiatarua ‘where the city is at and where it is going’, a huge penny dropped for me. Suddenly, all those controversial letters to the Western Leader faded into insignificance. As I see it, this man is guiding us through the re-invention of Waitakere City, based upon the beauty of our own precious Ranges. He talked about the transformation from “Edge City” to “Eco-City”. I heard the passion in his vision of creating a heart for this city, with beautiful public buildings and parks that will become a legacy for future generations. What a gift to leave our grandkids eh?

I remember years ago when we fled the Big Smoke to raise a family in Oamaru... I spent the first few weeks taking artistic snapshots of all the amazing old ‘Oamaru stone’ buildings and the stunning public gardens. My very young son (pushchair-ridden) took it all in nonchalantly, but I was in absolute awe of the architecture and design gifted by generations before.

From Council level to the frontline of our very own little community, I see more of the same – people with vision & commitment who care about the environment and human relations. These are folk willing to go that extra mile – the ones putting in ‘discretionary effort’ (a new term used for ideal employees).

What more could we ask for as residents of Waiatarua? We have a generous family who print this newsletter for free, a guy who goes out of his way to keep our roads safe, a playcentre to nurture our littlies, a man to inform us of how much rain falls and a drama group to entertain. Our library keeps us literate, the Garden Group encourages green fingers, Neighbourhood Support watches over us, the Fire Brigade puts out our fires & pulls us from wrecks and Arataki provides beautiful places to explore. Every ‘letter to the editor’ received confirms that people care, humanity is alive and we are all individuals with diverse but fertile views.

Roadwatch Report

Les Duffield

An attempt to steal a vehicle on the 27th of February was probably thwarted by a steering wheel clamp. What’s scary is, this attempt was between 6.00pm and 8.00pm.

Also, there was a spate of unconfirmed burglaries in the general area.

Both reports strengthen the fact that we need Neighbourhood Support schemes to give us an edge.

BRICKBATS and BOUQUETS

Sponsored by the Fairy FlowerShop,
423 Titirangi Road, Titirangi Phone 817 3780

The bouquets go this month to those two hardworking ladies, Molly and Jeannette, leaving the ranks of the WRRR committee - for their special effort and contribution to the community.

The editor would like to send the brickbat to a naive female hitchhiker, in the hope she might “wake up”. Just after delivery of the last newsletter, this young lady was seen hitching a ride on West Coast Road near Oratia School, towards Waiatarua at approximately 7.30pm. Hopefully, she made it safely to her destination? Perhaps she enjoys playing ‘Russian Roulette’... or fancies the idea of being front-page Herald News!

Our April 5 visit is to see the Tuberous Begonia collection of Alan Baldick. The address is 13 Cromwell Street, Mt. Eden; and we should arrive at 1.00 pm. Depending on the weather at the time, we may go on to the Parnell Rose Gardens and find afternoon tea on the way back. Ring Eileen on 814 9298 for further information and car-pooling.

From the President

Dave Pocock

Hi all... What a month it has been - with Resource Consent matters, Ward Boundaries, the AGM, and The Fire Brigade Play.

I have had contact with concerned residents of Raroa Terrace about what would appear to be an anomaly. It would seem that resource consent has been granted to build a 5 metre x 5 metre garage on land designated as road reserve. The residents have written to council and at this point a reply is awaited. We will monitor this, and look forward to a satisfactory result which I hope to report on next month.

The Council held an information meeting, regarding the proposed changes to Ward Boundaries for the current Waitakere Ward, in our Hall on the 14th of February. I am pleased to say that this was the best-attended meeting of the four held. Unfortunately, very few Waiatarua residents were among those numbers. Although advertised in this newsletter and by the Waitakere City News, I counted (apart from committee members) five residents. Are the rest of us happy for somebody else to make decisions on our future for us?

The following week was our AGM - a successful night, although once again local residents conspicuous by their absence. Apart from committee, there were seven. If you are one of the many that did not attend these or other meetings we have held, I would like to know why there seems to be a lack of interest and would appreciate a phone call, e-mail or letter (anonymous if you wish). At the AGM Mayor Bob Harvey gave an interesting and informative presentation on Waitakere City past, present and future; after which we all had the opportunity to ask him questions on various matters.

We have an elected committee for 2006/2007, which is the 2005/2006 committee minus Molly Whittington and Jeannette Ziesler. Molly and Jeannette stood down this year due to family commitments, and I thank them both sincerely for the valuable contribution they have made. Both have agreed to complete projects that they are already involved in – Molly, the Autumn Festival; and Jeannette, the Wastewater Management committee.

As we lost two, gained none and we were already one short... we have a predicament in a number of areas. Mainly: our constitution calls for a quorum of six at committee meetings. With only a total of eight, we run the real risk of not reaching quorum which could mean non-meetings. We now have eight people doing the workload of eleven, remembering that those eight are all on their third term and there are bound to be others not seek re-election in the future. There is no new blood coming in to carry on or inject new ideas into the system. I ask anybody who has even the slightest interest in joining us to give it serious thought. I know the word “committees” conjures up horrible thoughts, but generally speaking we are a friendly bunch that has fun along the way. It is not ALL political and in fact not all of the present committee get involved in the political side, as quite a large part of our involvement is socially orientated eg. Community Breakfast, Autumn Festival etc. Anyway, don’t take my word for it. Phone any of the present or immediate past committee members for their thoughts.

On a happier note... the Fire Brigade held a three-night season to full houses of “Phone 1125J Greatest Hits”, in which yours truly played the part of a gay newspaper reporter. It was a lot of fun! The first performance was put on for the United Fire Brigade Association conference, but they didn’t tell me until after I had agreed to play the gay reporter that the venue was a K Rd. transvestite nightclub. Still, we survived.

That’s it for now. Don’t forget the Autumn Festival.

Fire Brigade

Ian Ford

A quiet month for the Fire Brigade - which is always good! It’s our extra-curricular activities which are newsworthy.

Congratulations to Helen Longley, who won two of New Zealand’s twelve gold medals at last month’s World Firefighter Games in Hong Kong. An outstanding effort! Her events were squash and indoor rowing.

This week Kerry Chislett was the second Kiwi home in the Seattle Tower Stair Climb challenge in the USA. His time for the trot up to the 69th floor was 16 min. 38 sec. - that’s in full firefighting kit with breathing apparatus, and includes a stop to change cylinders.

And of course our play “Phone 1125J Greatest Hits” concluded after one performance for the United Fire Brigade Association conference and three nights at Waiatarua. The venue for the UFBA show was changed at the last minute – to ‘Finale’ in K Rd. A transvestite nightclub is certainly a bit of a change from our normal home.

Recent calls:

8:41 pm, Thu 8 Mar – Scrub fire, Lion Rock, Piha. Handled by Piha crew. This was apparently started by fireworks.

12:52 am, Sun 12 Mar – Car and scrub fire, Mountain Rd. Not content with stealing a car and trashing it, these criminal masterminds found it necessary to back it into the bush before they torched it. Fortunately there was only a 4 or 5 metre radius around it damaged.

Contacts: Always phone 111 for fires or other emergencies. Otherwise contact Ian Ford (814 8871), Helen Longley (814 9855) or Karl Nuttall (814 8871).

EcoCity Gets Eco Smart

Prime Minister Helen Clark praised EnviroSmart™, an environmental business programme set to change the way New Zealand companies do business, at the programme's launch recently.

The EnviroSmart™ programme will focus on improving the environmental performance and resource use of over 500 businesses throughout the country. It is based on an Auckland Region Pilot programme involving 58 businesses, 10 of which are local businesses currently sponsored by Waitakere City.

"I'm a great fan of what's happening, it's the way forward for advanced economies like ours," The Prime Minister told the audience.

The five-year, $3 million dollar EnviroSmart™ programme, to be delivered by Landcare Research, promises to benefit both participants and New Zealand as a whole. Businesses will sign up to reduce solid waste and use energy, water and raw materials efficiently, as well as to produce and purchase environmentally sound products and services.

Waitakere City Council will be sponsoring twenty businesses over the next three years to become EnviroSmart™ businesses. Council Project Manager, Cleaner Production, Kelly Taylor says it is an excellent way of ensuring local businesses get behind the EcoCity vision.

"The plan is to provide businesses with all the tools they need to gain a recognised environmental accreditation through a well-structured programme," says Ms Taylor. "Alto Plastics and Lisa's Healthy Foods are two Waitakere companies already leading the way – they have been certified to EnviroMark®NZ Silver level."

Other Waitakere companies on the pilot programme include Cremer Engineering (manufacturer of disability chair-lifts), Fumapest (pest control and personal hygiene), Future Cuisine, Huhtamaki New Lynn (plastics), Norcross Printing, Powder Coating 1988 Ltd., Tegel Foods and The Sellotape Company (adhesives).

Programme costs are shared between business participants and funding sponsors, including local and regional councils. The Prime Minister said the initiative is "a fantastic example of thinking globally and acting locally". She said most businesses would like to be more environmentally friendly, but need the sort of guidance offered by the EnviroSmart™ programme to get them started. "We have to act a lot more boldly on sustainability than we have been," Helen Clark said.

For further information about the EnviroSmart™ programme, please visit the website at www.envirosmart.co.nz or contact Kelly Taylor, Waitakere City Council Project Manager, Cleaner Production, Ph 836-8000 Ext 8411 or kelly.taylor@waitakere.govt.nz

Playcentre Promoting Early Literacy

Playcentre has long been known for leading the way in early childhood education. Playcentres have always been innovators, for example by introducing child-led play and maintaining high adult-child ratios long before they were common. For nearly 60 years Playcentre has been nurturing young New Zealanders, supporting thousands of children and their families, while helping build communities.

Find out more at our local Playcentre Open Day, run in co-operation with LIANZA (the Library and Information Association of New Zealand Aotearoa) and held at Massey Library & Leisure centre on the 25th of March. Our theme is early literacy and the many ways it can be achieved. Literacy and pre-literacy can occur in many places other than libraries, however. Your Playcentres are expert at providing environments in which early literacy flourishes. Your local Playcentres have plenty of resources promoting pre-reading skills. Posters, books, games and jigsaws are full of examples of writing. We promote discussion, singing and reading; using items like picture cards to explain how to do baking and how things work. We write children's names on their artwork (or help them write it if they're older) and support them in seeing the possibilities ahead of them.

Your local Auckland Playcentre Association is called Te Akoranga, and comprises of eleven centres spread around West Auckland. Playcentre recognises the importance of education for all, and we continue to support thousands of children aged 0 to 6 years by developing education for the whole whaanau and 'growing' healthy communities with our programmes. Playcentre believes that parents are their children's first and most important educators. To support this, Playcentre also offers free adult education in a variety of topics including parenting, health & safety, child development, and leadership. Every session offers the experience of personal growth, friendships and a sense of community for both parent & child.

We would love you to come and see how your preschoolers can learn with enjoyment through play and participation. Our Open Day this year is based at Massey Library and Leisure centre on Saturday 25th March from 10am to 12 midday. Join in the fun and play with us! For more information about our Open Day and your local Playcentres ring 838 8849, email: te.akoranga@paradise.net.nz or visit www.playcentre.org.nz

The Arataki Rangers Roundup

It is with considerable gratitude that we farewell our Student Ranger staff. Over the summer months they have bolstered the ranks of the field Rangers, assisting in a wide range of duties and gaining invaluable experience.

The Volunteer Celebration at Cascades Kauri was a great success with an excellent turnout enjoying the activities and lunch provided by the local Rangers.

All major contract work is now completed at Rose Hellaby House and is well worth a visit.

The Education Programme is off the ground for another year with hundreds of excited students indulging in the variety of programmes on offer. Any questions as to how your school can become involved may be directed to our Education Department on Ph: 817 0085.

In response to several tragic accidents involving fishermen at our West Coast beaches earlier this year, the ARC is providing Rock Fishing Safety Advisors on select days at the most popular west coast beaches - to educate fishers and demonstrate correct equipment. On duty until Easter, it is hoped these advisors will have a positive influence on those most at risk.

Happy trails everyone. Ka kite, The Arataki Rangers

Donated Table Walks

A $1300 macrocarpa picnic table, donated to the Arataki Visitor Centre by the Friends of Arataki, has been stolen. The incident took place under the watchful eye of video surveillance, which captured the culprits unbolting the table and tying it to their vehicle during early morning hours. Police are following strong leads to track down those responsible.

The table was one of two, designed for wheelchair access and paid for with a grant from The Waitakere Licensing Trust.

Vandalism and stolen property is on the increase at Waitakere Ranges' parks and beaches. Over $4000 worth of safety signs was stolen from Piha beach, then later found damaged. Two toilets at Manukau Harbour beaches were hit by arsonists.

Arataki ranger Jonathan Gould is disappointed that money earmarked to improve parks and make them safe has to be spent on repairing broken or stolen items and cleaning up graffiti.

The Regional Council may consider installing lockable gates at the visitor centre to keep the public out after hours.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor 12/02/06

While driving to and from Piha on the weekend I noticed numerous clumps of ginger, now flowering, along West Coast Rd; mostly before and past Bush Rd. Some of these are probably on Council owned road verge, but I wondered if neighbouring property owners could help prevent spread by at least topping the flower heads. Free ginger bags, you can put out with the rubbish collection, are available from Council by ringing the Call Centre 839 0400.

Cheers, Monique Davis

Dear Editor,

What is it going to take to get people off the couch and away from the TV? I recently attended a Council-arranged meeting in OUR hall with reference to the proposed changes to the Ward Boundaries in this area, directly affecting us the residents. I also attended the AGM in the same hall, to get more information on the Ratepayers & Residents Association - how they operate and what they do for us the residents. Where were all of you??

- A Worried Resident

Ed. Perhaps we'll see everyone at the Autumn Festival.

On-site Waste Water Liaison Group

Meeting 28th February 2006.

Residents Info: Information pamphlet and letter was approved for distribution to all residents. Letter includes 'change of details' form to ensure WCC records are up-to-date.

Draft Action Plan: (Plan for improving on-site waste water disposal). Contains planned actions, time-line and costs for improvements over 10-year period. Maximum extra funding available, inflation taken into account, is $90,000.

Plan was not approved. Only opposition was from Huia rep. as no money has been made available for a stage 2 of "Huia Demonstration Project". Rep. will have approval (or not) from her group for next meeting. Budget allocation can not be adjusted for this so the only option, if agreed by group, is to re-allocate funds from other actions.

LIM Records: LIM's to be updated to include recommendation that: a) intending purchaser to get septic tank checked before purchase. b) if a 'high-tech' system, check to ensure maintenance agreement is in place and regular checks are carried out. c) advise last pump-out report be accessed.

Water Quality Reports: These to be e-mailed to affected areas as soon as received (beach and stream areas).

By-Law Update: New by-law required by 1st July 2008. Draft required by November. This group will continue to have input on this.

- Jeanette

Ed. everyone should have received a guide on managing waste water from the council.

Library Report

New this month:

'Three Cheers for Inventors' - this is a great book. Supposedly meant for children, but I thoroughly enjoyed sharing it with our grandchildren.

'The Unknown Soldier' by Neil Hanson. This is the story of a British, American and German soldier and how the concept of the grave of the Unknown Soldier came to be.

'The Night Watch' by Sarah Waters (author of Tipping the Velvet). This book is set in wartime Britain.

Plus new books by James Paterson, Bryce Courtney, Karen Robards & Joanne Trollope to name a few.
