Hi all. The Oratia Farmers' Market started Labour Weekend, with lots of fabulous stalls. The Market will be every Saturday from 9am–12 noon at Artisan Wines, 99 Parrs Cross Road, Oratia – rain or shine. Parking is available for $2. A farmers' market is a produce market selling food produce and food products, fresh flowers, plants and compost to name just a few. The products are sourced locally and sold by the producer. The aim is to provide a venue for local food producers to sell their product directly to the public. This is an authentic farmers' market – a member of Farmers' Markets New Zealand Inc. There will also be a music stall for buskers and a community stall where various community organisations will have displays. As the Market is a new venture they are looking for any other local producers wishing to have a stall. For further information phone Chris 817 9645 or visit their website www.oratiafarmersmarket.co.nz.

A full day out in South Auckland is planned for our November 7 get together. We will meet at Shadie Stables at 10:30am for those who need to start the day with retail therapy. The address is Jamieson Road, Pukekohe. At 11:30am we will visit the serene 1½ acre Ngodevwa Garden at 8 Whiriwhiri Road, Waiuku, where the entry fee is $5.

Lunch will be enjoyed at Brookfield Lodge Garden at Bombay. This large garden has sweeping lawns and shade trees bordered by curved beds of shrubs, roses and perennials plus an area of palms, bromeliads and various subtropicals. The entry fee, including lunch, is $12.

Ring Eileen as soon as possible on 814 9298 for any further information or for car pooling.

Neighbourhood Support Waitakere

Les Duffield

Recently a car was acting suspiciously on Scenic Drive. It was a Blue Nissan Bluebird saloon with a black rear bumper – registration number XE1752. Luckily some locals reported it to the Police; and yes, the plates were stolen. This proves you can't be too vigilant; just maybe, these people saved your home from being broken into.

You will have received an envelope with this newsletter, giving useful details to make your home safe, make sure you are prepared for an emergency and to make sure the Emergency Services are prepared for you. It will also contain a personal questionnaire – the only way for the new Neighbourhood Support to work successfully is for each of us to be able to communicate with our neighbours. Your telephone number is needed so that you can be contacted in an emergency or if there is a criminal intent in our area. Your email address is needed so that relevant information on current criminal activities can be passed on.

For further information and details contact Les Duffield phone 814 1130, 021 720 100; email lesjudyj@xtra.co.nz

BRICKBATS and BOUQUETS

Sponsored by the Fairy Flower Shop, 423 Titirangi Road, Titirangi. Phone 817 3780

There have been no bouquet nominations this month. The brickbat goes to the drivers who travel up Forest Hill Road and fail to stop and indicate at the Stop Sign as they are turning left into West Coast Road. There certainly is an accident waiting to happen.

From the Vice President

Korstiaan Prins

It is not often I get the opportunity to write a report for the newsletter and now I sit here writing it, there is so much going on I hope I don't forget anything. Let's line them all up.

On Wednesday 24th October the latest production of the Waiatarua Performing Arts Trust 'At the Bach' will open with a gala performance. The cast and crew have been working really hard since late August to bring you this production. If you haven't got tickets yet telephone Robin on 814 1850. Be sure to see this one.

Cathie and Ian will host the last Quiz night for 2007 on Saturday the 17th November. We have had a great season; so mark this evening on your calendar. Only a weekend later, Sunday Morning 25th November, the WRRRA Committee will once again cook your breakfast for you. A clown will entertain us all and there will be a colouring competition for the children. There will be the usual full breakfast and an all round good time to be had by all. Please telephone Jan Haine on 837 2318 for bookings so we know how many we need to cater for.

By now we also know that only a very few of us bothered to vote in the Local Body Elections, apparently the lowest turnout ever for Waitakere. You must have been so busy enjoying the beautiful rangers that it slipped your mind.

The Waiatarua Community Centre will receive a new roof in early November. After a few small leaks were detected during the past winter, the owner of the building – Waitakere City Council – was quick to have them fixed, and tendered for a new roof to be fitted. Thank you Waitakere City Council for providing us with a great place for this Community to gather for all the events like the ones mentioned above and others over the years. The WRRRA has ordered a second oven for the Community Centre. We found that just the one stove is not enough when we are catering for many people at a time. We hope to have it available for the breakfast in November.

So people there is plenty to do over the next month or so; we don't mind if you forgot to vote, you are still welcome at the Community Hall to enjoy the show, quiz and breakfast. We hope to see you there.

– Korstiaan

Guy Fawkes' Bonfire

You're all invited to join us at the Guy Fawkes' Bonfire at the Fire Station on Sunday 4th November. We'll have a few sausages on the barbecue from 6:30pm and the bonfire will be lit as it gets dark, probably some time after 8pm. If you'd like to BYO fireworks we will have an area set aside where you can let them off. Please only light fireworks in this area, and we remind you that you are responsible for looking after your children. If the weather is uncooperative then we will postpone to Monday 5th – call the Fire Station on the night to check, telephone 814 9213.

Chemical Dumping

A disturbing recent trend has been the dumping of chemical waste in the Ranges, probably discarded from a 'P' lab. In both of the incidents in the last month there were a number of different containers, some unlabelled, and some containing a quantity of chemicals. We're told some of these can be pretty nasty – especially if they mix.

Please call the Police or Fire Service if you see anything like this and don't try to clean them up yourself. If you see them being dumped and can safely note vehicle registration numbers or descriptions than the Police would certainly appreciate this information (immediately if possible), but don't put yourself at risk!

Recent Calls

8:03am, Friday 14 September – Hazardous materials, Scenic Drive. Attended by Henderson and Glen Eden Brigades and the Auckland City Hazmat unit. A number of dumped chemical containers needed identification before fire crews and Police could determine that they could be removed safely.

12:38am, Sunday 23 September – Car fire, Scenic Drive. Another stolen car at Spraggs Bush.

1:17pm, Sunday 7 October – Hazardous materials, Anawhata Rd. We attended a virtually identical scenario to that of 14 September, again with the Auckland Hazmat unit.

Reminder

Did you check the batteries in your smoke alarm when you changed your clocks for daylight saving? It's not too late...

Contacts

Phone 111 for any fire or emergency. Otherwise please call Ian Ford (814 8871), Helen Longley (814 9855) or Karl Nuttall (814 8777).

FOCUS ON BUSINESS

One of the great joys in my life is being able to work from my office that looks straight out into our beautiful Waiatarua bush. Perhaps you are one of my fellow locals who do the same, or maybe you've thought about starting your own business so you can! If so, this month's column is for you.

As the Focus on Business interviews have shown over the past five months, the shape and diversity of small businesses in Waiatarua is huge. Our peaceful, exquisitely beautiful landscape is full of the most amazing entrepreneurs, all of whom have demonstrated their commitment to our community by basing their businesses here. These self-employed and small business owners are a cornerstone of our community. Without them, we would have considerably fewer resources available for the not-for-profit organisations and activities that operate in Waiatarua. Many small business owners employ or outsource to others in the community, and also invest their time and expertise to contribute directly. There is a certain level of expectation that local businesses will support the communities in which they operate, which is fine – but who supports them?

Anyone who has ever started up their own business will tell you that it can be a pretty overwhelming experience, and it doesn't necessarily get any easier as the business continues to grow. Decisions need to be made and actions to be taken that may be well outside the expertise of the business owner, and there's always something new to learn to stay on top of things. In addition, despite what many may think, a large number of (even quite successful) small businesses make only a modest profit; even for those operating from home, as so many do in Waiatarua, there are hidden costs associated with running a profitable business.

Fortunately, there's now good news for small business owners when they need support. Over the last couple of years, there has been an explosion of information, services and resources available to help anyone operating their own business, or thinking about starting one. While there are always times when we need to pay a professional for services, there are now also many quality services available absolutely free – you just have to know where to look! Many of these are particularly useful for people thinking of starting up or in the early stages of their business – it's a bit of a 'catch 22' – you need the services and resources in order to have the money to pay for them! Here are just a couple of my favourite resources for small business owners or those looking to start one, accessible right here in our own community.

Enterprise Waitakere: Telephone 837 1855 or email businessservices@waitakereenterprise.co.nz; Website www.waitakereenterprise.co.nz; Offices – Second Floor, Central One, Waitakere Central Office Park, 4 Henderson Valley Road, Henderson.

Enterprise Waitakere exists to help businesses in the area succeed. They offer practical support and assistance to existing business owners or those considering starting a business. Their range of services includes a Business Start-up Pack (they'll post it to you, or you can collect) a range of free courses, funding opportunities, and contacts to help grow your business.

New Zealand Trade and Enterprise: Telephone 0800 55 5888; Website www.nzte.govt.nz
New Zealand Trade and Enterprise provides a huge range of information and tools to help start, run or grow a business.

Biz: Telephone 0800 424 946; Website www.business.govt.nz; Offices – Waitakere Enterprise
Biz is a fairly new service provided by NZTE; in Waitakere their physical services are offered via Enterprise Waitakere, so you can 'phone them or pay them a visit if you're not on the internet. If you are, the website is new, and superb! I highly recommend it.

There are many other quality free resources available to support small business owners or those thinking about starting up a business, from business planning, information on how to set up your business and home office, business and computer training, and business mentoring, to free computer software that you can use to run your business records (and information on what records you should keep, and how to keep them!). If you would like to find out more about what's available, get in touch with me (email jan_haine@xtra.co.nz or telephone 837 2318) – I'll add you to my newsletter list and keep you updated on quality, free services and resources for small businesses.

HELP REQUIRED!

We require a volunteer for one hour, once a month. Jenny has given us years of service – our thanks to her – and now she has stepped down. We need someone to open the library and issue books on either the 1st Saturday or 1st Sunday of each month. Please ring Bev (835 3237), or Jeannette (814 1999) if you can help us out. Thanks.

There are some excellent new books waiting to be read. Come along, borrow them, and enjoy a good read.

Recycling Days NOVEMBER 14th & 28th

Place your recycling bin and bundled paper on the kerb by 7:30am on your recycling collection day.

Last month it was stated that only #1 and #2 plastics were to be placed in the recycling bin. This is the official Council policy; but one of our community has communicated with Jon Roscoe at the Council and unofficially they will take plastics #1, #2, #3, #4, #5, #6 and #7. The reason it is not policy yet is that they aren't sure if the market will continue to exist (although it seems pretty likely) and they don't want to have to tell everyone to go back to #1 and #2s, so people who put out #1 to #7s need to be mindful that they may possibly be asked to stop the #3 to #7s sometime in the future. If anyone in Waiatarua wishes to discuss this further then they are welcome to phone Jon Roscoe at the WCC who is aware that we will be putting this in our newsletter.

REDUCING RUBBISH MAKES SENSE FOR EVERYONE:
• It reduces current and future costs to the city (and to ratepayers) • It reduces demands on the environment and natural resources • It reduces the amount of material taken to landfills.

CONSIDER: • Buying products that use less packaging (economy sizes, refills or concentrates) • Telling retailers "NO BAG PLEASE" when you are buying just one or two items • Reusing boxes and jars for storage • Donating reusable items to charities or 'op shops' and taking old clothes to clothing recycling bins.
